

"Piece By Piece -- Sorrow, Joy, And Heartburn!"

Text: Luke 24:17b,31a,32a.

"And are sad," "And their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him," Heart Rejoice within us."

Scripture: Luke 24:113-32

We have now arrived at the very end of the journey which began on Ash Wednesday in Tyre and Sidon, and now culminates outside of Jerusalem. Jesus was crucified on Friday and it is now the first day of the week or Sunday as we know it.

Jesus appeared to His followers on five different occasions during the day of His resurrection.

As we look at our scripture for this morning, we find that it is in the afternoon of that Sunday when Jesus had arisen from the tomb. Two of the disciples (vs 13), are walking along the road leading toward Emmaus which was located about 7 miles from Jerusalem. It is thought by some that this was a man and wife walking along and talking about what had happened ~~the~~ on Friday, and the events as they had been reported to them by the other disciples and the women. We are told that one of these people was named Cleopas, but the other remains unidentified at this point.

Now as they walked along and tried to reason all of this out, Jesus comes up to them and begins to walk along with them. But at this point they are prevented from recognizing that it is Him. Jesus asks them what they were so deeply engrossed in discussing as they walked along, and He remarks why they are sad. This was probably much like two of us being involved in a very serious discussion to be interrupted by another person, thus making necessary to explain the whole conversation in order for the other person to understand. We can well imagine their feelings at this point and it was probably a source of irritation, to explain all of this to someone who quite evidently was not aware of all that had taken place.

So Cleopas answers, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who has no knowledge of all that has taken place?" These two people were probably in no mood to go into long explanations about their friend Jesus. They were stunned by His death, and they were mourning Him. If we try to picture this in our minds, we can probably see that they were thinking that the authorities had done something to dispose of the body, and they were just not that certain that they could believe what they were being told by their other friends.

But regardless of their feelings they explained to this stranger all that had taken place, much like people rehash an ~~illness~~ accident, or an operation, or a death.

When they had completed their story Jesus takes them to task for their lack of knowledge concerning the prophecies about the Christ. But even when He went into a detailed explanation of scriptures, they were unable to recognize Him. So when they arrived at their destination, they evidently had enjoyed His companionship along the way, so they invited Him to spend the night at their place. It was late in the afternoon and they probably figured that since He was a stranger in the area, He would be needing a place to spend the night, and they were ~~thankful~~ grateful for His company. In all probability He was a learned individual and they could pass the evening discussing the issues of all of this. But strangely, as they were seated ~~at the table~~ and eating together, He took the bread and blessed it, and broke it, and as He gave it to them, they saw Him for the first time. And we read, "Their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him." (vs 31a). And it was at this point that they experienced a joy they had not felt for several days. And even though He disappeared from the room, they had this sense of elation and happiness, and they began to question each other as to the reaction they had in their hearts as they had walked along the Emmaus road with Him, and He had quoted the scriptures concerning Himself.

From ~~all of~~ this portion of scripture we can deduce that there were among other things, three very distinct feelings that evolved. There was "Sorrow, Joy, and Heartburn.

Naturally they felt a sorrow for the loss of their beloved Friend Jesus. They missed Him deeply, and were shocked when all of a sudden the wonderful relationship with Him was broken and He was gone. He was dead, at the tender age of 33, and this brought on their deep sense of sorrow. But as we can see from this event, sorrow is merely the forerunner of the emotion of Joy. We mourn and weep for loved ones who have passed on. Yet, through the comfort of Al-

PERSONAL TESTIMONY

OF

Ralph C. Link

I am the youngest of five children. I was born just prior to the onset of the Depression. Our family was very poor. My father was an alcoholic and my mother was a very religious person who was searching for the Lord. During my childhood she did her best to teach me the things of the Lord. Later in life she came to a personal relationship with Him.

I grew up in the Evangelical and Reformed Church where salvation by grace alone was not preached nor taught. I knew all about Jesus, what He did, how He lived, His miracles, His death and resurrection, but I didn't know Him personally.

My life had many ups and downs and all the while I was attending church and striving with my good works to please God. At a very low point in my life when we were deeply in debt and my wife and three children were all ill, I came to the crossroads. I watched a Billy Graham Crusade on television from some distant city and the message he preached seemed to be directed right at me. I wrestled with making that commitment to Christ, but didn't. The next afternoon and evening at work on the 4 to 12 shift I came to the conclusion that I needed to make that commitment to Christ. It seemed like there was no other choice if life was to have any meaning. That night when I came home from work at 1:00 A.M., I laid face down on the living room floor and told God that I couldn't live my life in my own strength and I accepted the gift of salvation from my Savior Jesus Christ. My life has never been the same.

Through several meaningful circumstances I was called by God to serve Him in the Christian Ministry and to help spread that wonderful message of salvation through the shed blood of Jesus Christ. What a wonderful and rewarding time it has been and I give Him all the praise for my salvation and the opportunity to serve Him.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

Ralph C. Link

I believe the Bible, both the Old and New Testaments to be the inspired inerrant Word of God. I believe the Bible is the complete revelation of His will for the salvation of men and it is the final authority for the Christian faith and life.

I believe in one God, who is eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

I believe in the Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ that He is true God and true man. I believe that He was born of the Virgin Mary, that He lived in sinless life, that He performed the miracles recorded in Scripture, that He died on the cross as a sacrifice for our sins, that He bodily arose from the dead, that He ascended on high where He is at the right hand of Almighty God as our intercessor.

I believe in the Holy Spirit and that He comes and indwells each believer at the time of conversion. I believe that He lives in each believer to lead, to instruct, and to convict so that a believer may live a more godly life.

I believe that through the shed blood of Jesus Christ and through His resurrection, this is the only ground for justification and salvation for all who receive Him. A Lord and Savior and to such as receive Him, they are born of the Holy Spirit and become children of God.

I believe water baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of the Church but are not means of salvation.

I believe in the personal and premillennial and imminent coming of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I believe in the resurrection of the dead, for the believer to resurrection of life and joy with the Lord, for the unbeliever to resurrection of judgement and everlasting punishment.
